* fee + placement

- Vendor fees vary by event. If a fee applies, the amount will be stated in your acceptance/confirmation. A fee is not due unless Jessie confirms your spot.
- Vendor spaces are assigned by LoveJoy Market and belong to the event. A spot may not be sold, gifted, traded, transferred, shared, or substituted.
- If you cancel, the opening returns to LoveJoy Market and is offered through the approved waitlist. You may not choose your own replacement.
- An unapproved replacement who arrives on event day will not be allowed to vend, even if another vendor told them they could take the space.

* Waitlist + cancellation

- Waitlist order is generally chronological among approved applicants. Someone may be skipped only for a documented event need such as category, footprint, power, or permit requirements.
- When a spot opens more than 24 hours before the event, the offered vendor normally has 2 hours to accept. Within 24 hours, the response window may be reduced to 30 minutes.
- LoveJoy Market aims to have any last-minute replacement confirmed at least 2 hours before doors so they have time to gather inventory and travel to the studio.
- A no-show without a genuine emergency or act-of-God situation may make the vendor ineligible for future LoveJoy Market events. Jessie reviews emergency exceptions.

* Attachments + event standards

- ☐ If I cannot attend, I will contact LoveJoy Market immediately. I will not give my spot to another person or business.
- ☐ Harassment, threats, unsafe conduct, illegal products, unapproved alcohol/open flame, or refusal to follow safety directions may end participation immediately.
